ADMINISTRATION

PRIVACY

RATIONALE

Daramalan recognises each person as a unique creation of a loving God. Each individual person must be allowed to grow and develop. Each person has a right to have aspects of her/his life protected by respecting their privacy.

POLICY

Daramalan College will act in accordance with the Australian privacy laws in carrying out its functions.

APPLICATION

1. Staff will be reminded of their responsibilities, particularly in relation to the collection, management of, use and provision of access to, information about its immediate community of students, parents, staff and volunteers, and its wider community of past students and friends of the College, and others associated with the College.

2. The College will publish a statement that outlines how it handles personal information practices.

Reviewed and re-approved September 18, 2012